Rebus puzzles

A rebus uses the appearance, position or direction of words to suggest a familiar word or phrase. Look at how the letters are presented, not just what they say. Write the expression each picture represents.

EASY

Which familiar phrase is pictured here?

Notice the position of one word in relation to the other.

Answer:

MEDIUM

What phrase does this unusual word suggest?

If reading normally gets you nowhere, try a different direction.

Beginner cryptic clues

Most cryptic clues pair a definition with wordplay. "Mixed" can mean rearrange letters; "returning" can mean reverse them. Sometimes two definitions point to the same answer. Brackets give the answer length.

EASY Three clues, with a hint about the device used.

1. Consume mixed TEA (3)

Hint: anagram

2. Animal found in education (3)

Hint: hidden word

3. Flower, or got up (4)

Hint: two meanings

MEDIUM Three clues without device hints.

1. Listen badly for quiet (6)

2. Floor covering from vehicle and favourite animal (6)

3. Sweets from stressed returning (8)

Lateral-thinking riddles

Read the wording carefully. Look for an assumption you may have added, then try another interpretation. Explain your answer in a sentence; no specialist knowledge or complicated calculations are needed.

EASY A change of position

You are running in a race. You overtake the runner who is in second place. What position are you in immediately afterwards?

MEDIUM The family puzzle

Two children have the same biological mother and were born on the same day, in the same year, just minutes apart. Yet they are not twins. How is this possible?
